Partners should come to the Annual Meeting not only to present new ideas, but as learners – to learn from this unique community.

“The HOPE Global Forum was the greatest show on Earth - because it talked about creating jobs and rebuilding the almighty middle-class. There was testimony from well-know American CEO's, famous entrepreneurs, a 13 year-old business genius, President Bill Clinton - a wide range of expert witnesses. If anybody can bring our “good jobs” economy back - it is this summit, John Bryant and his Operation HOPE powerhouse.”

Jim Clifton | Chairman and CEO, Gallup

“The Hope Global Forum is not only a solid initiative to bring together like-minded individuals in an effort to help the underserved, but a solid foundation in which hope itself is built on. The Forum inspires me and makes me even more committed to help providing all a fair and equal shot. I am honored and privileged to be a part of it.”

BY POSITION

BY SECTOR

“I’ve been to Davos, to the Super Bowl, and to National Conventions of both parties. If I were forced to choose only one, I would choose the HOPE Global Forum. For the ultimate in servant leadership, the HOPE Global Forum is the place to be, to learn, and to serve. The HOPE Global Forum finds the intersection of economic empowerment and human dignity. It is a place to learn, to teach, and to be inspired.”

Steve Bartlett | Former Member of the US Congress, Mayor of Dallas, and CEO of The Financial Services Roundtable

The Impact

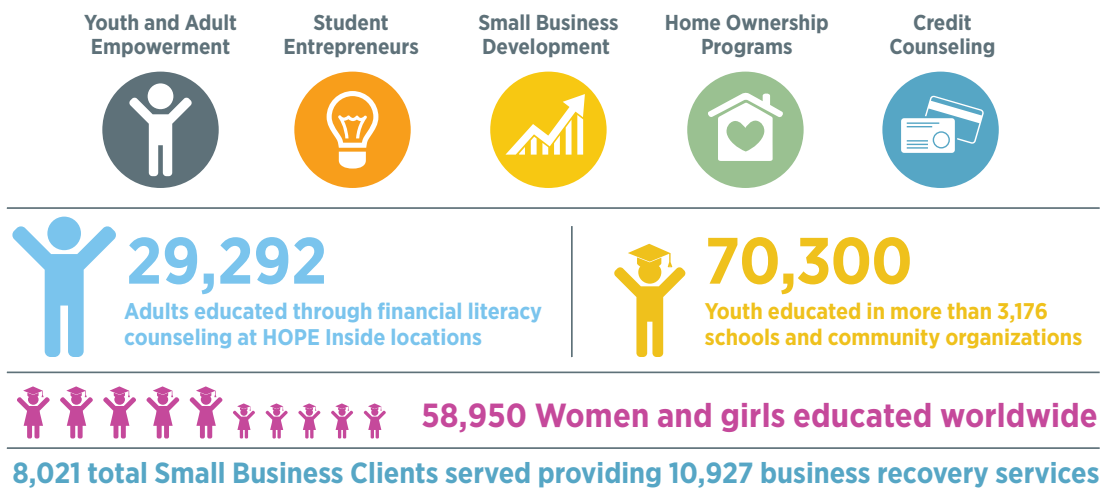

The Annual Meeting serves as a staging area for commitments to the HOPE Impact Network. Since 2013, over 1,700 commitments have been gathered for new and existing economic empowerment programs and services, volunteerism and mentorship. In 2014, these commitments allowed Operation HOPE to serve over 115,000 youth and adults around the world.

Your support of the Annual Meeting directly enables Operation HOPE to continue its work as the first ever nonprofit, financial services network for poor and underserved communities.

Through this network we are:

- » Nurturing and developing the next generation of entrepreneurs
- » Creating jobs through small business development
- » Delivering on the dream of homeownership
- » Empowering our women and girls

HOPE served 115,590 individuals in 2015

Operation HOPE

Operation HOPE was founded in 1992 and is now the largest economic education and empowerment organization for underserved communities, families, youth and adults. Through our work, we convert check-cashing customers into banking customers, renters into homeowners, small business dreamers into small business owners, and minimum wage workers into living wage workers.

Operation HOPE is rated four-stars by Charity Navigator, it's highest rating available. To date, HOPE has served more than 2 million individuals; directed more than $1.5 billion in private capital to America's low-wealth communities; utilized over 20,000 HOPE Corps volunteers, and currently serves more than 300 cities in the U.S. and around the world. We measure our impact through the Gallup-HOPE Index, a historic 100-year partnership with Gallup.

"The HOPE Global Forum convenes like-minded leaders from around the world dedicated to advancing the financial well-being of all people. Attendees get a potent dose of insight and inspiration to formulate their own actions in contributing to a stronger economy through inclusion and opportunity."
