Inspiring Us To Make a Difference

The Next Frontier of HOPE

- The HOPE Global Forums engage leaders from government, community and the private sector to outline a vision for the modern global economy – where the benefits and opportunities of free enterprise can be extended to everyone.
- Our Annual Meeting is now the largest gathering in the world focused on the empowerment of the underserved and struggling middle class.
- Participants are challenged to make HOPE in Action Commitments – large or small, individual or collective – focused on creating positive change in the world.

“I’ve been to Davos, to the Super Bowl, and to the National Conventions of both parties. If I were forced to choose only one, I would choose the HOPE Global Forum. For the ultimate in servant leadership, the HOPE Global Forum is the place to be, to learn, and to serve. The HOPE Global Forum finds the intersection of economic empowerment and human dignity. It is a place to learn, to teach, and to be inspired.”

Steve Bartlett
Former Member of the US Congress, Mayor of Dallas, and CEO of The Financial Services Roundtable

The HOPE Global Forums are the greatest show on earth – because it talks about creating jobs and rebuilding the almighty middle class. You can hear testimony from well-known CEO’s, famous entrepreneurs, a 13-year old business genius, President Bill Clinton – a wide range of expert witnesses. If anybody can bring our “good jobs” economy back – it is this summit, John Bryant and his Operation HOPE powerhouse

Jim Clifton
Chairman and CEO, Gallup

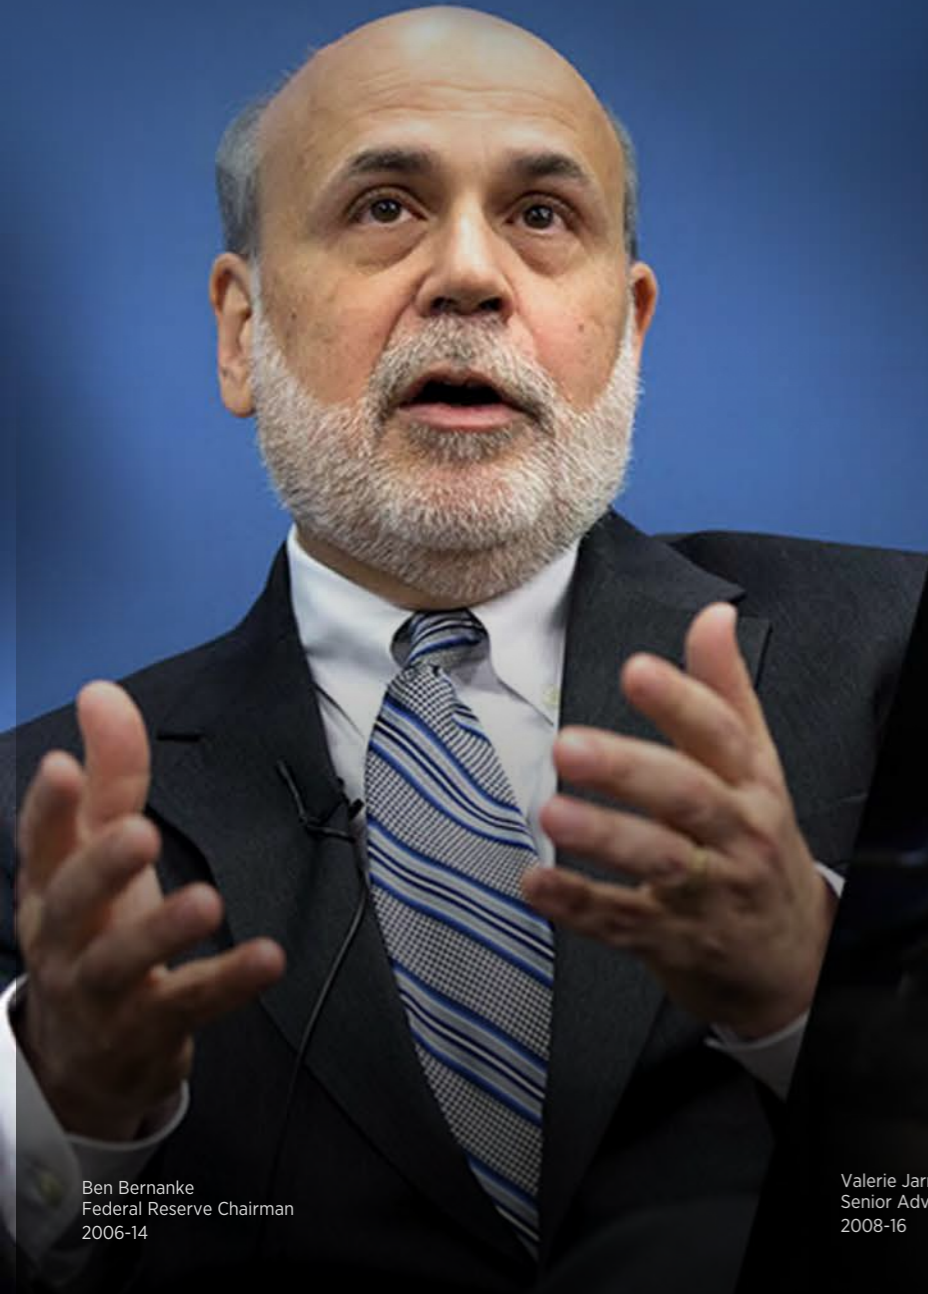

“The Hope Global Forum is not only a solid initiative to bring together like-minded individuals in an effort to help the underserved, but a solid foundation in which hope itself is built on. The Forum inspires me and makes me even more committed to help providing all a fair and equal shot. I am honored and privileged to be a part of it.”

Vice Chair, Revolution, Former Co-CEO, World Economic Forum
